BMW Car Club of America Club Racing and Toyo Tires
Continue Partnership with Multi-Year Agreement

Greenville, SC – BMW CCA Club Racing announced Toyo Tires will continue to be the contingency sponsor for Spec class racing after reaching a multi-year agreement that extends through 2023. Exciting, close and competitive yet cost effective, spec racing represents one of the fastest growing segments within BMW Club Racing.

In addition to their race-winning competition tires that are known for their reliable performance, Toyo Tires offers BMW Club Racers generous contingency payouts for each race event weekend. The contingency payouts are available for both SPEC E36 and SPEC E46 racing classes.

“Our team at Toyo Tires is proud to continue supporting BMW CCA Club Racing and extend our partnership through 2023,” said Stan Chen, senior manager, events, sponsorships and motorsports, Toyo Tire U.S.A. Corp. “As the spec tire for the E36 and E46 racing classes, we are confident that both our Proxes RR for dry track conditions and Proxes RA1 tire for the rain, will provide the performance the drivers and vehicles demand for exciting competition.”
